

Delivering Engaging Online Training

Course Description

Remote instruction presents unique challenges and opportunities for student engagement. Through participating in group activities and using various online tools, students will explore the difference between engagement and interactivity, learn best practices for online content presentation, use tools for interactivity, and explore how to use them in innovative ways to draw learners out and check for learning. 2 hours, limit 12.

Topics Covered

- Establishing an Optimal Learning Environment
- Interactive Vs. Engaging Training
First: Be Engaging!
- Cognitive Load
- Importance Of Keeping It Simple
- 6 Tools That May Draw Learners Out (e.g. Polls, Break-out Groups, Chat, etc. and Suggested Use for each)
- Checking for Learning Online